Swoyambhunath – Listed in UNESCO 1979

“The Self Existing One”. The oldest Buddhist stupa of Nepal situated in the small hill, from where you can see the nice view of Kathmandu valley. Historian believes that it is the oldest history of Kathmandu. No sooner you enter the periphery of Swoyambhunath you will see the monks, chanting religious words and monkeys chattering and hanging around the different temple and trees. It is also known as monkey temple, especially given by the tourist.

Bouddha nath Stupa: Listed in UNESCO 1979

The ancient stupa of Boudhnath is one of the biggest Buddhist stupa of Nepal, situated in the northern part of Kathmandu valley, which is one of the trading routes of Nepal with Tibet in ancient time. Tibetan merchants used to take rest and offers praying in this place during their trading time. Later when Tibetan refugees enter Nepal in 1950s, most of them decided to stay around the same place. Even now most of the monk in Boudhanath is from Tibet. Around the stupa you can see some Buddhist painting school of traditional paints “Thanka”.

Pashupatinath: Listed in UNESCO 1979

Pashupatinath the national deity of Nepal is one of the most significant Hindu temples of Lord Shiva in the world, located on the banks of the Bagmati River in the eastern part of Kathmandu. The word Pashupatinath is derived from three Sanskrit words: “pashu” means organism, “pati” means protector, and “nath” means Lord. Hence in hindu mythology Pashupatinath means protector and Lord of all living things. The bank of Bagmati River is the cremation centre of Hindu dead body. Where you can see the cremation process of hindu people. Beside this you can see the color full Sadhu ‘the holy devotee of Lord Shiva’ around the periphery of temple. Only Hindus are allowed to go inside the temple.

Patan Darbur Square: Listed in UNESCO 1979

Anciently Kathmandu valley was divided in three different state; Kathmandu, Lalitpur and Bhaktapur. Three different kings rule the different states. Patan is the ancient city of Lalitpur. It is best known for its rich cultural heritage, particularly its tradition of arts and crafts. It is also called as city of festival and feast, fine ancient art, making of metallic and stone carving statue. ### Awesome Tour !!!

Mega Adventures provided the perfect itinerary for a short vacation in Nepal. We took a flight from Kathmandu to Chitwan to explore the sights, including riding the elephants in the jungle. Then, we took a drive in a very comfortable car to Pokhara, with its beautiful Peace Pagoda and interesting caves. Driving back to Kathmandu, we stopped and took the cable cars up to Manakamana Temple- a great day! Evenings were spent walking the streets, shopping and eating great food. All arranged by Mega Adventures. Our driver did a fantastic job and our guide, Ang Tendi Sherpa is the best! I highly recommended Mega Adventures!

Fantastic !!!

I visited Nepal with my wife in December/January. I contact Mega Adventures International for my day trip to Kathmandu, Chitwan and Pokhara. Mr. Ganesh CEO of the company arranged my trip in a fantastic way. I do not need to worry about hotel, flight, transportation etc. I stayed in Chitwan Paradise hotel in Chitwan and Pokhara Eco Resort in Pokhara. Food and logistic service were great. I would love to recommend my friends and families to go through Mega Adventure International. They treated us as a friend rather than guest!!
