The Gosaikunda area has been delineated as a religious site. Hindu Mithology attributes Gosaikunda as the abode of the Hindu deities Shiva and Parbati. The Hindu scriptures Bhagavata Purana, Vishnu Purana and the epics Ramayana and Mahabharata refer to Samudra manthan, which is directly related to the origin of Gosaikunda. Its waters are considered holy and of particular significance during the Gangadashahara and the Janai Purnima festivals when thousands of pilgrims from Nepal and India visit the area.
